Proverbs 18:20-21

"A man's stomach shall be satisfied from the fruit of his mouth; From the produce of his lips he shall be filled. Death and life are in the power of the tongue, And those who love it will eat its fruit."

One year ago around this time, I was faced with all kinds of trials and tribulations. I didn't understand why God was putting me through those things. Besides, I have been a good Christian. Being in the Army, I put my trust in a lot of people. I shared many secrets with people that I "thought" were closest to me but was disappointed. Those same people used what I told them against me. I kept asking God... "why me?" Why me? I prayed and prayed and asked God to deliver me from those "evil" spirits that had seemed to take control of my life at the time. I went to church one day and the sermon was about complaining. Basically, I felt that the message was being delivered straight to me. Although we go through rough times we shouldn't complain because it could have been worse. The "little" things that we complain about are nothing compared to the homelessness, the poverty, the disease, etc., that other countries face on a regular basis. We ought to be thankful at all times, whether good or bad.

God won't put more on us than we can bear." Regardless of whatever circumstances may cause discontent or dissatisfaction, complaining is always an expression of unbelief toward God's order in our life. I use to think people complained because they had a lot of problems. But I have come to realize that they have problems because they complain. (Numbers 11:1, Ex. 16:8, 1 Cor. 10:10, Num. 14:2-3)

God turns what we consider to be bad situations into good ones. God removed me from that network and I have been doing great ever since, and I won't complain!!
